

Affidavit of James Henry

On or about the first of January 2004, I was inquiring regarding construction taking place in the plant and a backhoe that was in the building near a large hole in the floor. I asked Bill Donnell "What's going in the hole?" Bill responded "Cari Goodwine - whoops, I shouldn't have said that." I understood this to be a death threat against Cari and may have involved the threat of some harm against his person. At the time, Mr. Goodwine was being subjected to ongoing harassment and retaliation by the company in terms of being asked to perform tasks of general maintenance and to work with unsafe machinery which they know to be dangerous and even deadly. It is my statement herein that the discrimination and retaliation against Cari Goodwine was on going and continuous until he terminated his employment with PHB.
